Another Successful Ladies Night Out

The Jolly Roger Banquet Hall was the scene of the second annual Ladies Night Out. The divas arrived in costumes or formal attire on their bodies and smiles on their faces. The first event in the new Cut Knife rental hall facility certainly met all expectations.

The ladies were greeted with a glass of champagne, donated by Grondins, and the fun began.

Costumes were varied and convincing including Cleopatra, Virgil & Wyatt Earp, Minnie Mouse, Lady Gaga, Game of Thrones characters, Harry Potter, Red Riding Hood, the Royal Ladies, the Carol Burnett Show, Dolly Parton, a Rubber Tree, Cyndi Lauper, a Madam, Dave the Minion, and many Masked Beauties.

Whether in costume or formal attire, all enjoyed a delicious meal served by Roger and his hardworking staff.

MC for the evening, Lyle Cronk, gave a valiant effort to guide the ladies through the agenda, announcing some things more than once, because he had to get the attention of those divas who may have been deep in conversations? The many silent auction items, door prizes and ticket draws were made. Photos were taken in the photo booth.

Sheila, Chris and Ned entertained with foot tapping and sing along music. The local acting troupe gave two skits that had everyone laughing and being very appreciative of their talents. And, for those who just couldn't stop dancing, Core Sound provided the musical vibes to round out the evening.

Many thanks to all those who sold & bought tickets. Winner of the Bistro Set donated by Battlefords & Districts Cooperative was Lorrie Flicek, Neilburg. Afghan by Elsie Sawatzky was won by Dixie Eddingfield. (Please note that the museum acknowledged the Hi Pie Thursdays pie makers with a ticket placed in the draw.) The Portafino Resort in Cabos San Lucas donated a week's accommodation for 4 which was won by Joan Veikle.

Winners of the costume parade were Twila Loranger & April Rewerts (Best Group), Mia Fairley (Best Costume) and Martha Toovey (Best Formal).
